B) Read the following passage and answer the questions below :

You share your countrymen's anxiety and fear when there is a threat of foreign invasion or natural calamity; you share your countrymen's joy in victorious wins; and you share their pride in awards given to outstanding Indians in various fields. Such feelings of joy, pride, anger or shame shared by all Indians is a uniform bond. A unified India is a free India. Freedom was not a gift. Courage and determination earned it. It has to be treasured and safeguarded because it can easily be lost. The unity is greater danger to our
